

B57 Handgun

This is your personal sidearm to defend yourself when you have nothing else to work with, it has unlimited ammo but it has to be reloaded, Shooting at the head deals more damage.

G5 Shotgun

A very powerful shotgun that shoots hot shards. The more distance between you and the enemy, the less effective this weapon will be. Very good for close encounters.

GAU-2291/D gatling gun

This minigun shoots piercing bullets at a high rate of fire with the down side of reducing your momentum while being used, very good for crowd control.

Scoped Rifle

This sniper was designed for dealing with enemies very far away but users have found a love for using this gun even in close combat. There's only one rule : aim for the head.

Combustible Grenade Launcher

A weapon that shoots very powerful grenades with speed that depends on how much you hold the trigger, very good at killing groups of enemies and if you are not careful, yourself.
